WELCOME

The ATZlive events are an integral part of the calendar for every engineer involved with vehicles and engines. In 2019, you can expect a technically specialized program with 12 conferences focused even more clearly on the very latest topics relating to vehicle and engine technology and providing orientation for decision-makers. Firstly, the ATZ conference “Grid Integration of Electric Mobility“ will be held parallel to the new ATZ Congress „Electrified Mobility“. In this way, ATZlive is supporting the vitally important need for discussions that span different industries. Secondly, the conferences on Charge Exchange & Emission Control, Friction in the Powertrain and Vehicle, and Simulation and Testing, which examine their subjects in great technical depth, will remain unchanged as far as their subject matter is concerned, but they will be combined to form an expert forum for the internal combustion engine community and held as a single event, thus promoting an interdisciplinary understanding.

The events arranged by ATZlive make the perfect complement to the range of Springer Nature: The ATZ and MTZ media family provides engineers with reliable, up-to-the-minute technical information in print and digital form in both German and English. Springer Professional supplies top news every day, while the conferences are the ideal opportunity for in-depth discussions and for making new contacts away from everyday working life. Every conference is accompanied by an exhibition involving relevant suppliers and service providers. This gives conference participants the opportunity to find out about the latest innovations at first hand.

A scientific advisory board consisting of prominent figures from the relevant technical field helps each of our conferences with the process of planning and identifying themes for the event. This ensures that we can always offer you high-quality content about the latest topics.

We look forward to meeting you!

Dr. Alexander Heintzel
